of the dam on Sept 1, distribution of water for irrigation in the Cauvery, Vennar, Kollidam and the Grand Anicut Canal from Kallanai for the samba season would begin on Sept 6. Due to poor storage, water was not released from Mettur Dam for the short-term kuruvai crop on the scheduled date of June 12 this year.

As the water flowed past the Mukkombu regulator, farmers and the public showered flower petals on the river in a gesture of welcome.

CHENNAI, SEP 5 (PTI)

Rejecting the union government's explanation for excluding official OBC lists from the ongoing caste census software, PMK president Anbumani Ramadoss on Saturday urged the Centre to withdraw its notification and introduce a pre-defined dropdown system to ensure accurate data collection.

Claiming that 1931 was the last time a caste census covering the entire population was conducted in India, Anbumani said a national caste census was now being conducted for the first time in 95 years following decades of advocacy by social justice organisations, including the Pattali Makkal Katchi.
